In Chicken Sunday, we learn that the children are appreciative of Miss Eula. The way they express their gratitude is by saving up to purchase an Easter Hat she’s always wanted. Today we are going to write an acrostic poem for someone we are thankful for.

Step 1: Choose a person that you are thankful to have in your life.

Step 2: Write their name vertically on your paper. Be sure to capitalize each letter of the word.

Step 3: Start each line of the poem with the capital letters you wrote. Each line of the poem should be made up of words or phrases that relate to the person.

Example:

Easter hat gift
Unending love for her grandchildren
Lively
A voice like “slow thunder and sweet rain”

____
____
____
____
____
____
____
____
____
____
____
____
____
____
____

____
When you have finished your acrostic poem, write a first person narrative of a memory you have shared with the person. In Chicken Sunday, the children seem to have two memories that stand out to them. They remember the Sunday dinners Miss Eula would make and her singing voice. What do you remember doing with the person you are thankful for?

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________