

The TALE Yearbook Editorial Team is in search of an Associate Editor to join our team! Each year, TALE publishes a Yearbook, which serves as the proceedings for the annual TALE Conference. Serving on this editorial team requires a three-year commitment - the first two years as an Associate Editor and the third year as the Managing Editor.

Qualifications for consideration as a part of this team include:

- An in-depth, working knowledge of APA style (6th ed.);
 - Extensive experience with academic editing*; and
 - Being organized, punctual, collaborative, and communicative
- (*highly preferred)

If you possess these qualifications and are interested in becoming a part of this exciting team, please submit the following documents by no later than the date stated below:

- A letter explaining your interest in the position, as well as a focused, detailed explanation to how you meet each of the required qualifications.
- A current curriculum vita

Please email these documents to the taleyearbook@gmail.com email by October 1, 2018 at 11:59 PM.

Sincerely,

Elaine Y. Hendrix, Managing Editor, TALE Conference Yearbook, 2018 - 2019 and Lucinda Juarez, Associate Editor, TALE Conference Yearbook
